

Overview

DRWC requires a permit and certificate of insurance (COI) for all fitness related classes and programming held on Waterfront property. Interested parties must apply for a permit, provide a COI, sign a contract, and pay a fee before the permit is issued. This applies to the following locations:

- Race Street Pier
- Cherry Street Pier
- Great Plaza at Penn's Landing
- Blue Cross RiverRink Summerfest and Winterfest
- Spruce Street Harbor Park Sustained by Uninvest
- Washington Avenue Pier
- Pier 68
- Delaware River Trail

During the COVID-19 pandemic, permits will only be available for Race Street Pier, Cherry Street Pier and Pier 68. All non-permitted classes will be asked to leave the property/properties.

Rules and Regulations

- Applicant is limited to 20 participants per class. No more than 25 people, including instructors, can be within the class area.
- Masks must be worn at all times.
- All participants must sign a digital DRWC waiver
- Instructor is responsible for ensuring waivers are signed by all participants or risks forfeiting their permit
- Applicant may use a small bluetooth device for sound. PA systems and megaphones are prohibited.
- Alcoholic beverages are prohibited.
- The sale and/or distribution of all food and beverages is prohibited.
- No vehicles or heavy equipment may be brought on site.
- Using the stairs as part of the workouts is prohibited at Race Street Pier.
- Applicants must check in with DRWC security staff prior to the start of each class.
- Permit application, insurance certificates, signed contract and payment will be required one week prior to the class.
