The Spring Art Star Craft Bazaar is an outdoor retail art/craft show that is organized & juried by Philadelphia's Art Star Gallery & Boutique. Over 100 local & national artists have been selected to set up shop & sell their wares at the Great Plaza at Penn's Landing, right along the Delaware River. The event is being held on Mother's Day weekend, so come to the show to pick out the perfect, one-of-a-kind gift for mom or better yet, bring your mom to the show for a fun day on the waterfront!

Shoppers can expect high quality handmade goods that reflect the unique & often quirky aesthetic found at Art Star's popular retail shop. Art Star has carefully curated a diverse collection of artists that create anything & everything, including housewares, paper goods, dolls, prints, ceramics, clothing, accessories, paintings/drawings, sculpture, and many other one-of-a-kind curiosities. All items have been handmade from a variety of mediums that include fabric, clay, glass, wood, paper & much more.

The event will also include live music by local Philly bands, presented by Philebrity, including The Spinning Leaves, All Boy All Girl, TJ Kong & The Atomic Bomb, Gretchen Lohse, & many more! A Soy Café & Cedar's Point will be serving up vegetarian friendly food, amongst the standard festival fare.

We have also assembled a group of family friendly, interactive art/craft demonstrations by The Philadelphia Sculpture Gym, The Clay Studio, Inliquid, Kayte Terry (author of Paper Made!), Little Chair Printing, and the CandyCoated Center. Enjoy live screen printing, kite making, claymation, paper crafts, sculpture & more!

Get your picture snapped with fun props at the Cut & Paste Photobooth. Only $3 for a print! Enjoy Spodee "Wine with A Kick" samples from 12-4pm each day. Come early for your chance to snag an Art Star Craft Bazaar tote bag, silkscreened with our logo designed by Julie West & filled with swag – including at least 1 small handmade item donated by one of our vendors.
